

MEDIA RELEASE

WOW FILM FESTIVAL COMING TO NAMBUCCA ON MAY 7TH

The World of Women - WOW Film Festival is a short film festival that promotes and awards the talents of women directors, producers, writers, editors and cinematographers in the Australian film industry and internationally. It is a festival that offers emerging and established filmmakers the opportunity to screen short works giving a thematic perspective of ... "seeing the world through the eyes of women".

The 17th edition of the Film Festival was launched in Sydney on the 8th of March to coincide with the 100th anniversary of International Women Day.

The Living Carefully Project (LCP), hosted by the Nambucca Valley Neighbourhood Centre will screen a selection of the best shorts on Saturday 7th of May at the Nambucca Majestic Cinemas from 1pm. ($10). The program includes 22 awarded Australian and international shorts (out of a total of 44). A variety of comedies, dramas, animations and documentaries will make a great afternoon for any 7th Art lover.

Sil-Nyin Cameron, the director of the WOW film festival will be present to introduce the program and for any questions the public would like to ask.

LCP has been organising this event for the last three years and always donate the benefits to a local projects (Women's Way and Frrresh Mobile Café), and this year the funds will contribute to celebrate the valuable work of the volunteers in the Nambucca Valley during the coming National Volunteer Week (9-15 May 2011).

We hope to see you there for an enjoyable afternoon, finger food will be served at the end while sharing your experience with others.